While his passion for sailing provides an opportunity to relax in his spare time, when he is not on the water Patrick is the Chairman of UBI Logistics and has forged a career as a successful businessman in the freight forwarding industry, founding and leading a number of freight companies over the years.

Patrick opened Corrigan Express in 1967, and developed the internationally successful business, before selling it in 1972. He then went on to found the Australian Perishable Freight Forwarding Association, formerly Pace Express, in 1989, before selling it in 2000.

Since then he has spent much of his time working as a consultant and a Non- Executive director of several boards including Hyperion Flagship Ltd, Global Masters Ltd and the Gold Coast Art Centre.

An avid art collector, Patrick has served as a patron of the National Association for the Visual and Craft 'Artists' Grant Scheme' for over twelve years. Patrick has donated several items from his personal collection and is a life benefactor of the Art Gallery of NSW Library, and the State Library of Queensland.

Patrick's invaluable contribution to Australian culture was formally acknowledged in 2000, when he became a member of the Order of Australia for his services to the visual arts.
