Bob Guth

Born: May, 1952

Carbine Club Member since: 1996 (Member)

Current employment: CEO of BradfieldCleary Real Estate, Double Bay.

Bob Guth has seen much success since his acquisition of the real estate agency Bradfield and Pritchard in 1980, a company which has been in operation since 1927. In 2012 the company was rebranded as BradfieldCleary. His direction and drive for excellence during his time has ensured he is one of the most well respected realtors within the Sydney market.

His wealth of property knowledge has also ensured his continued commitment to not only property sales, but also property management. Bob manages one of the largest property portfolios in the Eastern Suburbs of Sydney, worth in excess of one billion dollars and he has seen much success, giving clients complete confidence in his company.

Bob was elected to the committee of the Australian Jockey Club (now Australian Turf Club) from 2007-2010. He also currently has memberships with the Sydney Theatre Company, the Victorian Racing Club, the Hawkesbury Racing Club, the Thoroughbred Breeders Association, the Real Estate Institute, Eastern Suburbs Rugby Club and is a keen golfer being a member of the Australian Golf Club. Bob has a small band of broodmares and breeds and races thoroughbreds.
