Caroline Searcy

Born: November 1967

Carbine Club Member since: 2014

Previous Carbine Club positions: Committee, Deputy Chairperson

Current Employment:

Caroline is the host and producer of two programs on Sky Racing, Bred To Win and the thoroughbred re-homing show, Thoroughbreds Are Go through her company SearcyMedia.

Having worked for 30 years in broadcast media Caroline travelled from Adelaide to Darwin to work as a radio newsreader, journalist and sports-panellist. From there Canberra beckoned including radio and TV sports-reporting jobs.

Employed for a decade as the senior newsreader and sports-journalist at Fox Sports News, Caroline also spent ten years as the host of all Sydney race-meetings as well as carnival meetings in Melbourne with national horse-racing broadcaster TVN.

For the past 5 years her work has included hosting duties with Sky Racing as well as the production and presentation of her two programs.

With a passion for encouraging a love of sport and in particular horse racing Caroline is also a respected advocate for the aftercare of thoroughbreds away from the racing industry.

Caroline is also on the Committee of Thoroughbred Breeders' NSW and a judge in the Australian Stud And Stable Staff Awards.
