

The Carbine Club of NSW

Ross Chapman

Born: 1964

Carbine Club Member since: 2017

Current Employment: Managing Partner, CBC Partners Chartered Accountants

Ross is a Chartered Accountant with a few more years experience under his belt than he would like to accept have gone by.

Ross's sporting heights never climbed above extremely keen, committed, spirited and just above average however his professional life has allowed him to provide professional advices to numerous national, state and regional sports organisations, as well as athletes, coaches and administrators.

The development of the various practices that Ross has being part of have been positively influenced and formed their culture around the sporting metaphor and the essence of TEAM.

Ross is proud and honoured to be part of the Carbine Club of NSW and had attended countless luncheons in Queensland and New South Wales prior to being invited to become a Special Member in 2017, and then Honorary Treasurer in 2018