Mark Couter

Carbine Club Member since: 2016

Current Employment: Executive General Manager, Commercial Banking Commonwealth Bank

Mark Couter's career in banking and finance spans more than 25 years, during which time he has worked for European and US multinationals and currently for Australia's largest bank, Commonwealth Bank.

Mark joined the Commonwealth Bank in November 2009 as General Manager Asset Finance for the Institutional and Business Bank. This role saw him take full charge of all lending secured by non-property assets.

Three years later, Mark was appointed General Manager, Corporate Financial Services for NSW/ACT.

In September 2017, Mark was appointed into the EGM Business & Corporate Banking, leading the national team in providing the full banking needs for clients with revenue between $5m and $150m. In July 2020 this business was renamed to Commercial Banking.

During his time in financial services, Mark has held senior roles in asset finance, property finance, debt syndication, cash flow lending and general banking.

Mark has a Bachelor of Business (Accounting) from Charles Sturt University, also a Masters of Management from Macquarie Graduate School of Management and is GE Six Sigma Green Belt-certified.

Mark has three daughters and enjoys skiing, cricket, racing and spending time with his family.
