

The Carbine Club of NSW

Michael Crismale

Born: February 1954, Sydney

Carbine Club Member since: 2008

Committee Member: since 2012 Vice Chairman: 2014 Chairman: March 2016 to March 2018;

Current employment: Executive Chairman, Matrium Technologies Pty Ltd, since March 1991.

Professional Memberships include being a Fellow Member of Australian Institute of Company Directors, and Member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia and New Zealand, with extensive career and background in corporate accounting, taxation, business strategy advice, specialising in sports administration, "not for profit" and corporate governance.

Experienced in developing businesses to reach their full potential through strategic direction, sales, marketing and general management, as well as assisting businesses in ensuring reliability and integrity of accounting policies and practices, financial disclosures, reviewing and reporting on adequate human resources and cyber security risks in an organisation. Experienced Chairman of the Board and of Finance, Audit, Risk, Compliance and Remuneration Committees and recognised as a leading figure in administration across a number of sports and dedicating a significant portion of life to the love of sport.

Played youth soccer at a competitive level and also dabbled in both indoor soccer and cricket, and now a non-executive director at Sydney Football Club, member of the board of trustees at the Sydney Cricket Ground and Sports Ground Trust and non-executive director at Racing New South Wales. Michael is the owner/breeder of a number of group and listed race performing thoroughbreds and has spent much of the last two decades contributing to the horse racing industry. Michael became Vice Chairman of the Australian Turf Club in February 2011, Chairman from February 2014 to September 2016 having been a Director of the Sydney Turf Club (2007-2011).

Michael also dedicated service to the national surf life movement as a Director at Surf Life Saving Australia from April 2011 to June 2014 and was appointed Attaché to Team Tonga and in this role attended the Commonwealth Games Delhi 2010 and the Gold Coast 2018. He holds a number of company directorship outside of the sporting industry including his role as Executive Chairman and Founder, of Matrium Technologies, a telecommunications & network solutions retailer, and Matrix Bloodstock, breeder of thoroughbred horses. Michael is also Non-Executive Chairman at Emjay Insurance Brokers and JSA Financial Services, and a Director of Stage, Inc, an entertainment technology company and creator of virtual platforms for live concerts and events.