

The Carbine Club of NSW

Denis Hickey

Born: December 1964, NSW

Carbine Club Member since: 2011 (Member)

Current employment: Chief Executive Officer, ING Real Estate

Denis Hickey began his career as a cricketer playing for the Melbourne Cricket Club in 1981. As a right arm fast bowler he made his debut for Victoria in the Sheffield Shield in 1985, representing Victoria through until 1990 before switching and playing for South Australia for five years.

In the 1986 off season Denis headed to England to play county cricket as part of a scholarship from the Glamorgan Cricket Club and in 1988 he was part of the Prime Minister's XI that played a touring West Indies outfit. In 1992 Denis toured with the Australia A team through South Africa and Zimbabwe and finished his career with 156 first class wickets with best figures of 7-81.

Denis was also a keen AFL player. In 1982 he was named in the Norm Smith scholarship squad and represented Melbourne in the under-19 squad in 1983.

Following his sporting pursuits, Denis has worked his way to the top of the order in Australian real estate. He is the CEO of ING Real Estate and is responsible for ING Real Estate's $10 billion management and development business.

Previous to his current employment, Denis was Chief Executive Officer, Stockland Development (2000-2009), and prior to that was the Chief Executive of AV Jennings Homes Limited.
