

The Carbine Club of NSW

Born: October 1953

Carbine Club Member since: 2008

Current Employment: Non Executive Director on several listed, government, charity and private company boards.

Phil Garling's early involvement in sport was principally aquatic: in swimming (winning Start age championships), water polo (500 grade games for Cronulla including 13 premierships), and surf lifesaving (state nipper surf race podiums). He also played 1st grade rugby for Port Hacking, (now Southern Districts).

Phil went on to be selected in the NSW state water polo squad and was selected for the Australian Universities water polo team from 1972-77. Following his career as a player he coached junior water polo and was secretary, treasurer and club historian of the Cronulla Water Polo Club.

He subsequently joined the board of Australian Water Polo and was President (succeeding Carbine Club Life Member Peter Kerr) from 2013-2018.

Phil has a Bachelor of Building from the University of NSW. And his executive career included 22 years at Lend Lease in Sydney, Singapore And Canberra. The last 5 years as CEO of Lend Lease Capital Services.

He was CEO of Tenix Infrastructure and then finished his executive career as Global Head of Infrastructure investment at AMP Capital Investors.

Phil's current directorships include Charter Hall (ASX:CHC), and Downer EDI (ASX:DOW). He is also Chairman of Energy Queensland, Tellus Holdings and Newcastle Coal Infrastructure Group.

Phil also has 80 acres at Berry south of Sydney where he pretends to be a farmer.