Arthur Inglis

Born: October 1956

NSW Carbine Club Member since: 2010 (Member)

Current employment: Deputy Chairman, Inglis

Arthur Inglis states that his sporting pedigree extends to watching sport rather than competing. However, Arthur's contribution to horse racing in Australia is nothing short of remarkable, assisting in the development a horse racing industry that makes sport fun for everyone to watch.

Arthur is the Deputy Chairman of William Inglis & Son, a family run business that was established in 1867 that has grown to become world renowned. Arthur is the fifth generation to be linked with the family trade.

Staging a busy schedule of thoroughbred auctions each year, which feature all the various categories of racing and breeding stock, Inglis offer about 6000 Thoroughbreds annually through their purpose built venues in Sydney and Melbourne. Inglis Bloodstock Services also include insurance, lease finance and bloodstock valuations, amongst other services.

The Australian Easter Yearling Sale is the flagship event on the Inglis calendar, attracting the finest young thoroughbreds in the Southern Hemisphere, and is the barometer for all thoroughbred interests in Australasia.

In 2008 Arthur continued his leadership within the racing industry by becoming a Board member of Racing NSW. Arthur is a member of the Australian Jockey Club, Sydney Turf Club, Victoria Racing Club, Sydney Cricket Club, Royal Sydney Golf Club and the Australian Club

Arthur is also joint founder of Pixevety, a consent driven image management technology provider which assists in capturing, storing, sharing and protecting photos and videos so that children can experience a lifetime of online safety and privacy. Pixevety has grown over several years to establishing hundreds of schools as customers in 5 countries including Government, independent and Catholic Education.
