

The Carbine Club of NSW

James Murphy

Born: March 1944

Carbine Club Member since: 1992

Previous Carbine Club positions: Secretary

Current Employment: Retired

Jim Murphy enjoyed a long career in the Thoroughbred Racing Industry.

His positions included Secretary of Tamworth Jockey Club and Hawkesbury Race Club; Managing Director of AWA Totalisators; CEO of the South Australian Jockey Club; International Marketing Manager of Sky Channel; and the initial CEO of Racing NSW (then known as the Thoroughbred Racing Board).

After retiring, he served as CEO of Racingcorp, a body representing the three Racing Codes in their dealings with Tabcorp.

Now retired, Jim retains a strong interest in racing, and serves on the Racing NSW Appeals Panel. He retains membership of the ATC and Hawkesbury Race Club, and a number of Sporting Clubs in Manly.
