

The Carbine Club of NSW

Ken Page AM

Born: October 1939, NSW

Carbine Club Member since: 1981 (Life Member)

Previous Carbine Club position: Secretary, Chairman

Current employment: Managing Director, Adam Thoroughbreds Pty Ltd

Ken Page has a long history of success and dedication within the sporting industry. While he lists golf and horse racing as two of his sporting interests, his involvement in sport over many years demonstrates the breadth of his sporting passion.

Ken's background is in the sport of horse racing, and throughout his career he has made a significant contribution to the sport he loves. Ken was the media spokesperson and went on to become the General Manager of Marketing and Public Relations at the TAB of NSW and was also the Australian representative to the Horse Racing Hall of Fame in Saratoga, USA.

Ken is now the Managing Director of Adam Thoroughbreds Pty Ltd, however, his contribution to sport extends beyond horse racing. Ken is also the Chairman of the Commonwealth Games Fundraising Committee of NSW and a committee member of the Olympic Games Fundraising Committee of NSW.

In 2006 Ken was awarded the Order of Merit by the New South Wales Olympic Council in recognition for his outstanding contribution to sport and the Olympic movement.
