Liz Ellis AM produced an illustrious career on the netball court, compiling an extensive list of achievements over many years of domestic and international competition. A member of the Australian netball team from 1993-2007, Liz is the most capped Australian netball player of all time (122 caps).

She has won three world championships titles and two Commonwealth Games gold medals, as well as captaining the Australian team from 2003-2007. At a domestic level, Liz was a member of the NSW Swifts from 1997-2007, captaining the team from 2000 until she retired in 2007.

She led the team to four premierships (2001, 2004, 2006, 2007), and was named the Netball Australia Most Valued Netballer in 1996, 1998, 2002 and 2006. Graduating from Macquarie University with a Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Laws and founding Liz Ellis Netball Clinics and Goals 4 Girls, Liz established a platform for life after sport and encouraged women across Australia to participate in sport.

Liz continues to contribute to elite sport in Australia via her positions on the Board of the Australian Sports Commission and the NSW Institute of Sport, as well as her role as a commentator on ONEHD.

In 2009 Liz was inducted into the NSW Hall of Champions and Sport Australia Hall of Fame, in recognition of her significant contribution to sport. She was also made a member of the Order of Australia for her significant contribution to netball, her encouragement of women in sport, and support of range of charitable organisations.
