Tom Malone

Born: 1979

Carbine Club Member since: 2017

Tom Malone is Managing Director – Radio for Nine, overseeing radio stations 2GB, 3AW, 4BC, 6PR and Macquarie Sports Radio.

Prior to taking the role he spent four years as Nine's Director of Sport, leading the growth of the Wide World of Sports and its relationships with major sporting codes, including Nine's historic switch from cricket to tennis in 2018.

Tom joined Nine in 2006 and has held roles as Executive Producer of the Today Show (for six years) and Executive Producer of 60 Minutes (for three years). In 2011, he founded the annual Gold Telethon for the Sydney Children's Hospital.

He started his media career in radio as a reporter and producer for 2UE between 1999 and 2006.

Tom also serves as a Director of the Bradman Foundation on behalf of Nine.
