

The Carbine Club of NSW

Kevin Maloney

Carbine Club Member since: 2015

Kevin is the owner and Chairman of Segenhoe Group and brings a wealth of business experience to the Segenhoe operations as well as the thoroughbred horse industry as a whole.

He is the founder and Chairman of Tulla, the parent company of Segenhoe Group. Tulla is a family-owned investment group focusing mainly on the resources industry.

Previously, Kevin was the founder and Executive Chairman of The MAC Services Group (The MAC), a company that was listed on the ASX in 2007 and later sold to Oil States International in 2010. Kevin was heavily involved in all stages of The MAC's growth, including its move into mining services accommodation in 1996.

Kevin has had an extensive career in retail banking, finance and resources. Kevin joined Elders Resources in 1981 after spending 20 years with the ANZ Bank. During his time at Elders Resources Kevin held numerous positions including Chief Executive Officer of Elders Resources Finance Ltd. Kevin's involvement in Segenhoe Stud actually began with Elders Resources who were part owners in the early days.

Kevin has previously been involved with a number of public companies as an executive and a director. Outside of his professional interests, Kevin has travelled extensively, enjoys all sports but particularly rugby and thoroughbred racing, history and also spending time with his family.