

The Carbine Club of NSW

Max Donnelly

Born: July 1957, NSW

Carbine Club Member since: 2003 (Member)

Current employment: Partner, Ferrier Hodgson

Max Donnelly, has been a significant contributor to sports administration in Australia. He has undertaken a number of roles within the sporting industry including his role as a director of Northern Eagles Football Club, administrator of North Sydney District Rugby League Club, receiver for the Cronulla Sutherland Leagues Club and liquidator at St George Budapest Soccer Club.

Max is a chartered accountant and has been involved in insolvency, turnaround consulting and litigation support for over 30 years. He is currently partner at Ferrier Hodgson, Asia Pacific's most widely recognised and highly respected provider of turnaround, reconstruction and forensic services with offices in all Australian capital cities as well as Singapore, Malaysia, Indonesia and Japan.

He has handled a number of high profile bankruptcies during his career, including Christopher Skase, Robert Trimbole, Dr Geoffrey Edelstein and the estate of Lang Hancock. He utilizes his vast expertise as a Board Member at Macquarie Radio Network.

Max has a passion for sport and is a member of the Royal Sydney Golf Club, Killara Golf Club, and the Australian Turf Club.