

The Carbine Club of NSW

Darren Kane

Born: 1975

Carbine Club Member since: 2015

Previous Carbine Club positions: Committee, Secretary, Public Officer

Current Employment: Sports and Commercial Lawyer, Colin W Love & Company Lawyers

Darren is a sports and commercial lawyer admitted to practice by the Supreme Court of NSW, High Court of Australia and Supreme Court of England and Wales.

Darren advises a range of sporting clients including international, national, state and regional sports governing bodies and other multi-disciplinary sports organisations; athletes; rights holders; and agencies from sports including rugby league, football (soccer), water polo, modern pentathlon, cricket, tennis, swimming, diving, archery, racing, harness racing, hang gliding, baseball and track & field athletics. He advises in areas including sports governance; the drafting and implementation of sporting rules and regulations; anti-doping; sports dispute resolution and disciplinary matters; international and Olympic nomination and selection disputes; sponsorship and endorsement deals; gaming and wagering; playing contract and related employment matters; and matters relating to branding and the protection / exploitation of image and related rights.

Darren also conducts a broad corporate and commercial practice which includes advising clients in relation to partnership, joint venture, shareholder, share sale / purchase, management, supply, procurement and licensing agreements; intellectual property ownership and disputes; employment contracts; defamation; commercial dispute resolution and ADR; and various regulatory matters.

Darren holds a Master of Laws (LL.M) specialising in sports law.

Darren is a member of the Australia and New Zealand Sports Law Association and the British Association for Sport and Law.

Darren is a member of the NSW Combat Sports Authority, the Honorary Secretary and the Public Officer of The Carbine Club of NSW and a member of the Legal Committee of Fédération Internationale de Natation (FINA).

Darren is a sports columnist with the Sydney Morning Herald and related Fairfax Media publications throughout Australia.