

The Carbine Club of NSW

Trevor Davis

Born: 1924

Carbine Club Member since: 1978 (Life Member)

Trevor started his working life with the Australian Gaslight company and was promoted to Supervisor by the time he left and joined Boral. After 2 years he became the Oil Sales Controller at Boral and after 8 years joined American Company Fabrtee International as Managing Director for Australia. After 25 years of service, Trevor bought the company and ran it for a further 10 years until he sold it and retired.

Trevor was also a competitive tennis player, having played at White City in the Australian Championships. He was also the Hard Court and Lawn Court Singles and Doubles champion in the Marrickville District.

A member at Concord Gold Club, Trevor also won the World War II Club trophy – 5 times.

A life member of the Carbine Club of NSW, Trevor was integral in the growth of the club in its early years.
