

The Carbine Club of NSW

Merv Hill

Born: 1947

Carbine Club Member since: 1997 Life Member

Previous Carbine Club positions: Secretary, Committee Member

Current Employment: Principal, Racing Admin Solutions

Merv has led a number of organisations throughout his career mainly associated with thoroughbred horse racing in WA, SA and NSW, including Racing NSW in its inaugural years.

Now residing in his native Tasmania he continues his association with racing as Chairman of racing related groups and he is also the Editor of The Carbiner, the official newsletter of the Carbine Clubs.

He is a Life Member of CCNSW, a Senior Member of CCTAS and has also been honoured with Honorary Membership of the Carbine Club in Victoria.