

The Carbine Club of NSW

Philip Neck

Born: Adelaide 1947

Carbine Club Member since: NSW (2004), SA (President), WA, ACT and NT

Philip has extensive and comprehensive experience within the racing industry. Until 2016, Philip worked with the Turf Authorities of India. He was the Liaison Officer for the 36th Asian Racing Federation Conference in Mumbai, India and also for the 35th Asian Racing Federation Conference in Hong Kong.

Philip was International Liaison Officer for the Asian Racing Federation in Dubai, Sydney and Tokyo. He was also a Senior Consultant for the Royal Horse Racing Club in Oman.

Closer to home, Philip was Chief Executive of the Western Australian Turf Club and Chief Executive of the Australian Capital Territory Totalizator Administration Board.

Philip has also held various managerial roles with Elders Livestock, Hogg Robinson and was the Managing Director of Neck Pastoral in South Australia

Philip is a life member of Oakbank Racing Club and the Bloodhorse Breeders Association (SA Division). A Board Member of the Racing Advisory Committee for WA Health Promotion Foundation (Healthway), Executive Board Member of the Australian Racing Board Ltd and the Eventscorp Advisory Board.