

The Carbine Club of NSW

Stuart Clark

Born: NSW 1975

Carbine Club Member since: 2012

Previous Carbine Club positions:

Current Employment:

Stuart Clark is an Australian former cricketer. He was a right-arm fast-medium bowler and a right-handed lower order batsman. He was a part of the 2007 Cricket World Cup winning Australian squad.

Being a professional athlete Stuart has the skills and ability to thrive in high pressure and high intensity environments which he has been able to transfer into his work life environment across different sports.

Whilst competing for 15 years, Stuart was able to complete two Degrees, a Bachelor of Laws and a Masters in Commerce (Finance Major) whilst also being full time employed in Sports Administration.

Stuart is currently employed as Chief Operating Officer for New South Wales Rugby League.