Stuart Macdougall

Born: Sydney 1947

Carbine Club Member since: 2002

Stuart is a former Australian Rugby Union player who represented for the Wallabies eight times.

At the age of twenty-three, MacDougall was selected to represent New South Wales against Queensland. The following year he played in his first test match against South Africa against a back drop of anti-apartheid demonstrations.

He toured England in 1973–74 and played three tests against New Zealand in 1974.

He played his three final tests against England, two at home in 1975 and once on the 1975-76 Australia rugby union tour of Britain and Ireland.
