Trent Franklin

Born: February 1979, NSW

Carbine Club Member since: 2010 (Member)

Current employment: Managing Director, Enrizen Financial Group

Trent Franklin's water polo career has been one of longevity and success. Selected in the Australian men's national squad in 1998, Trent has gone on to become a leader both in and out of the water.

Trent has become a stalwart of the men's national water polo team, representing Australia for over eight years, including appearances at the 2004 Athens Olympic Games and Vice Captaining Australia at the 2008 Olympics in Beijing. During this time he also claimed two bronze medals at the 2007 & 2008 World League Championships and represented Australia at four world championships.

The second highest capped Australian National League player, with over 300 games played, Trent represents Sydney University as part of the National Water Polo League and has aspirations of competing at a third Olympic Games.

He is the founder and Managing Director of Enrizen Financial Group and contributes to the direction of sport in Australia via his role as the Deputy Chairman of the Australian Olympic Committee Athletes Commission and as Board Member of the Australian Olympic Committee.

Trent is also the Chairman of the Australian Water Polo Athletes Commission and a Board Member of Water Polo Australia.
