

The Carbine Club of NSW

Tyler Martin

Born: June 1990

Carbine Club Member since: 2017

With a number of medals and national titles from France and Brazil to his name, Sydney-sider Tyler Martin made his Olympic debut in Rio for the Australian water polo team.

Born in Toronto, Canada, Martin moved to Australia at a young age and took up water polo as a 12-year-old with the Drummoyne Devils. At 19, he was named in the National Water Polo League All Star team.

Martin has played professionally in France, Italy, Hungary and Brazil. Along with fellow Sharks teammate, Nathan Power, Martin lived in Rio de Janeiro for three weeks at the end of 2015. The two Aussie Sharks helped the Botafogo team to their first national water polo title in 10 years.

He made his international debut for Australia in 2010, and the following year won silver at the Volvo Cup in Hungary and bronze at the Italian Cup. He made his World Championships debut in 2013, where Australia placed eighth in Barcelona, Spain.

Tyler has played Professionally in France, Italy, Hungary and Brazil, Martin graduated from Macquarie University in 2012 with a Bachelor of Commerce, majoring in Marketing.

He is the founder and managing director of a Delfina Sport, a custom swimwear company.