

The Carbine Club of NSW

Scott Barlow

Born: 1976

Carbine Club Member since: 2017

Scott is the Managing Director and founder of STRADA.

Scott has extensive experience in the property industry, specifically in commercial property funds management and residential development. Scott is the Chairman of Sydney FC and has been a member of the board since the clubs inception. He previously held the position of the Australian representative on the FIFA committee for club football.

Scott began his career in the finance sector having held positions in mergers and acquisitions, corporate valuations and corporate strategy at a number of leading Australian and International companies, including AMP, PricewaterhouseCoopers and Telstra.

Scott holds a Bachelor of Commerce from the University of Tasmania and a Graduate Certificate in Applied Finance and Investment from the Securities Institute of Australia.